full biography.

A series of conversations, including questions and answers, with leading professionals!

- Producers and creators of Broadway musicals, television, theater, and films
- Performers in Broadway musicals, television, theater, and films
- Music educators, choir directors, and vocal experts
- Celebrated dancers and choreographers
- Leaders in a myriad of specialty fields within the entertainment industry

These intimate 90 minute, online sessions are limited to students at The Young Americans College of the Performing Arts and are designed to provide a very real and laser focused look into many of the professions they may dream of entering. Hopefully, we will also introduce our students to a vast array of opportunities that reside in the world of entertainment and music education that they didn't even know existed!

Join us and meet the incomparable Pattie Howard, New Kid 1977, as she shares her stories as a gospel and R&B singer, song-writer, producer, composer and vocal arranger. Over the span of four decades, she has worked with major artists worldwide and is a familiar face as a supporting vocalist for legendary singers such as Michael Jackson, Whitney Houston, Mary J. Blige, Queen Latifah, Madonna, Gladys Knight and Diana Ross.

Date: Wednesday, September 9, at 6:00 pm, Pacific Standard Time
